Purchasing Tickets...

To purchase tickets for your Club's visit to Roots Hall, please liaise with your Club's ticket office which will have an allocation of tickets for the fixture.

Below is an example of your match ticket when attending Roots Hall, which will include the stand you're seated in, block, row, seat number and the turnstile to make accessing the stadium easier.

Once you receive your ticket please make your way to the turnstiles and place the ticket into the reader with the barcode first.

When the turnstile turns green please proceed into the stadium and enjoy the game.

Matchday Collections

If you've decided to collect your pre-paid tickets you can do so from the away ticket collection point which is located behind the Colourfast North Stand (away end).

Subject to availability you will be able to also purchase tickets on the day of the game but please check with your Club in advance to make sure this option is available for travelling.

More than just football...

It's not just football in Southend, there's certainly a lot on offer including restaurants, hotels and attractions, below are just a number of places we recommend.

- Southend-on-Sea pier, the world's longest pleasure pier is popular with tourists, either walk or use the train to visit the museum - you can find out more here.

- At Adventure Island, it's your day, your way! Free entry to the park. To enjoy our iconic rides, you'll need to buy a wristband - find out more on prices and rides.

- Mangetout, a swanky smokehouse and grill based in Southend town centre is a popular haunt and you won't leave there feeling hungry! Have a look at the menu or book a table here.

- The Regal Park Inn by Radisson is a scenic stay. A 6-minute walk takes you to Adventure Island and Southend Pier, the town's major landmark - book a room here.

- Pasta Pia, they want to share with you their love and passion for "Italian Street Food". Simple, authentic, fresh high quality ingredients bring your meal to life. Find out more here.
